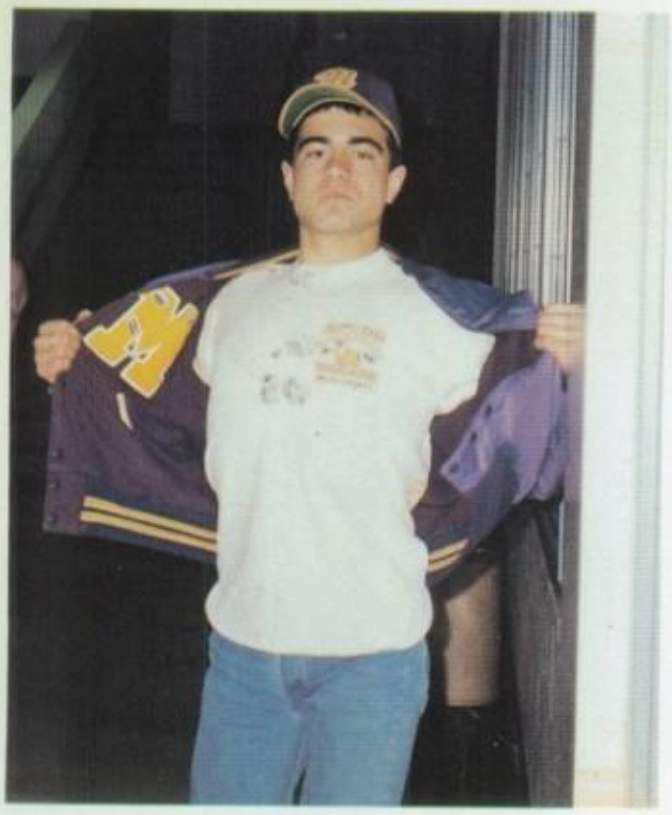
4th Hour CP reading everyone's "favorite" book — A TALE OF TWO CITIES!



S. Reed struts his stuff and shows what being a Senior is all about!

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES SENIOR CLASS OF 1988! — The Yearbook Staff

SENIOR-ITIS

Around May of each year, a strange but wonderful thing happens in high schools across the U.S. Parents speak of it in hushed voices as a type of temporary mental illness that is not harmful but very irritating. Teachers try to ignore it. Underclassmen look upon it with disgust . . . they don't understand but vow they will never suffer from it. It has two stages . . . The first occuring in May of one's junior year. This stage consists of a general feeling of pending superiority, of nearing the top, of soon becoming the ruling class. It strikes some harder than others. In extreme cases, some juniors lock their bedroom doors and practice saying "SENIOR" in the mirror. The mere mention of the word sends ripples of satisfaction through their entire body.

As spring turns into summer these strange students acquire a confident walk . . . (parents call it a strut . . . underclassmen call it obnoxious.) They gain an air of assurance..(parents call it cocky . . . underclassmen call it obnoxious.) They instantly become mature and able to make major decisions regarding their destinies . . . (parents call it rebellious . . . underclassmen still call it obnoxious.)

When fall comes and school begins, all these wonderful discoveries combine to make the senior class perfect students, fantastic leaders and all around great people. Usually a small demonstration of authority is needed . . . Thus the "thunking" of underclassmen's heads with senior rings will make the point. (Parents call it tradition . . . underclassmen — due to their limited vocabulary — still call it obnoxious!)

Then suddenly this feeling goes into recession. Seniors are busy making their grades, worrying about ACT scores and making one last great effort to put a mark in the record book. Parents seem relieved . . . underclassmen begin to think seniors might be human after all. Ah, but yes . . . it isn't gone because that wonderful feeling begins to surface in its final stage around February. It comes on bigger and better than ever. In the final stages . . . Seniors find that they can do and say things that they never before had the courage for. They are now able to relate to anyone on a mature level. Expressing valid and usually excellent opinions . . . (Parents call this disrespectful . . . underclassmen . . . again, call it obnoxious, and now teachers have begun to sigh a lot.

It is said that this terrific feeling will soon fade and by next September, it will be just a fond memory. So to our long suffering parents . . . hang on and try to remember your own Senior year. To all the underclassmen . . . your time is yet to come. To our teachers . . . Just keep sighing — The junior class has just caught it!

And to my fellow Seniors — Can we help it if we are the Greatest? . . . for the moment at least.

LONG LIVE SENIOR '88!

School Day Memories

As we reach out our hand the diploma we grasp, while we think of the memories of the years in the past. Tears fill our eyes because it's all gone, we're starting a new life, we have to move on. We hope friends will keep in touch as the years pass us by, Although it hurts inside we'll try not to cry. We think of kindergarten and our first day, now we've reached the end we're going away. How do you say good-bye to friends who mean so much? Will there be time, to sincerely keep in touch? You'll always have the memories of your school years from day one, don't think of school as ending — think of a new life begun.

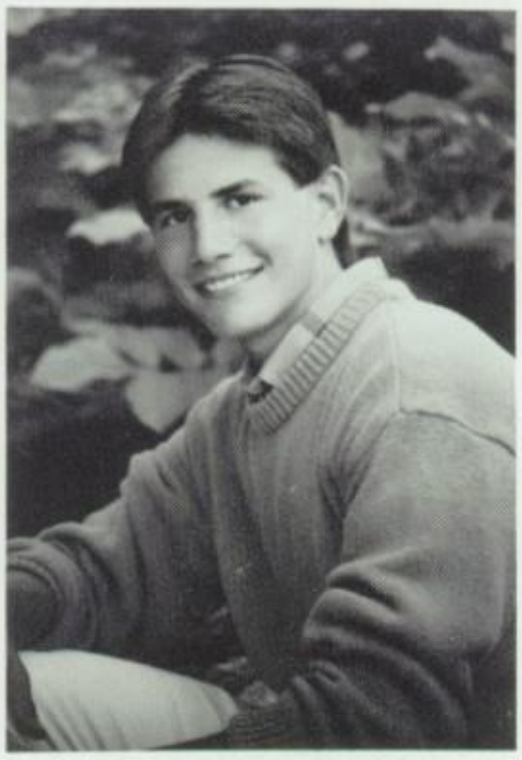
CO-VALEDICTORIANS & SALUTATORIAN

Susan Nichole' Miller was selected as one of the two valedictorians of Mannford High School for her academic acheivements.

Susan, daughter of Susan and Gary Miller, attended Mannford for ten years. She received a 4.0 GPA and enjoys volleyball, art, skiing, and tennis.

Susan plans to attend the University of Oklahoma in the fall and major in biomedical engineering. We congratulate Susan on her achievements and wish her the best of luck in the future. Jon Arvid Hupp was the other student chosen as Mannford's valedictorian.



Jon, son of Joe and Janice Hupp, has attended Mannford schools all of his life. He enjoys wrestling (in which he placed 3rd in the state tournament), tennis, waterskiing, golf, swimming, bowling, and basketball.

Jon plans on working and maybe taking a class at Tulsa Junior College. Jon would eventually like to attend either Tulsa University or the University of Nebraska and major in physical therapy. Congratulations Jon! We wish you the best of luck.

Shari Clifton was selected as the 1988 salutatorian of Mannford High School. Shari attended Mannford for 12 years. After graduation she plans to attend Central State University. She has not made any permanent plans, but she would like to do some kind of social work.

Shari feels that her senior year was the easiest year of all. We are very proud of Shari and hope that she gets everything she wants out of life.

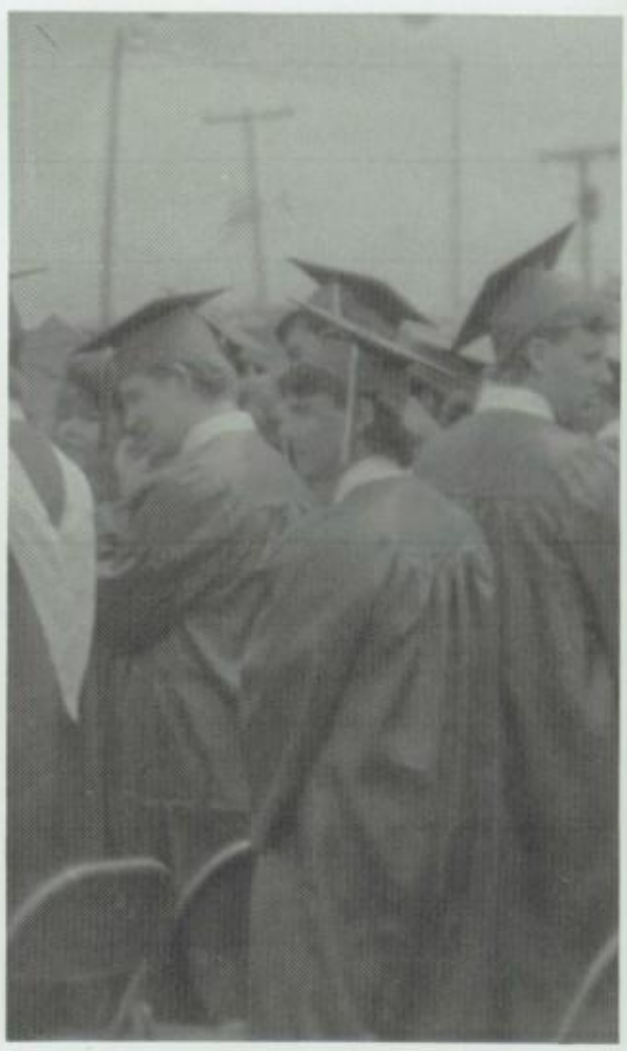
GRADUATION

Lance Garner takes the final walk.

Kaleidoscope did an excellent job at the graduation ceremony. They brought tears to many people's eyes.

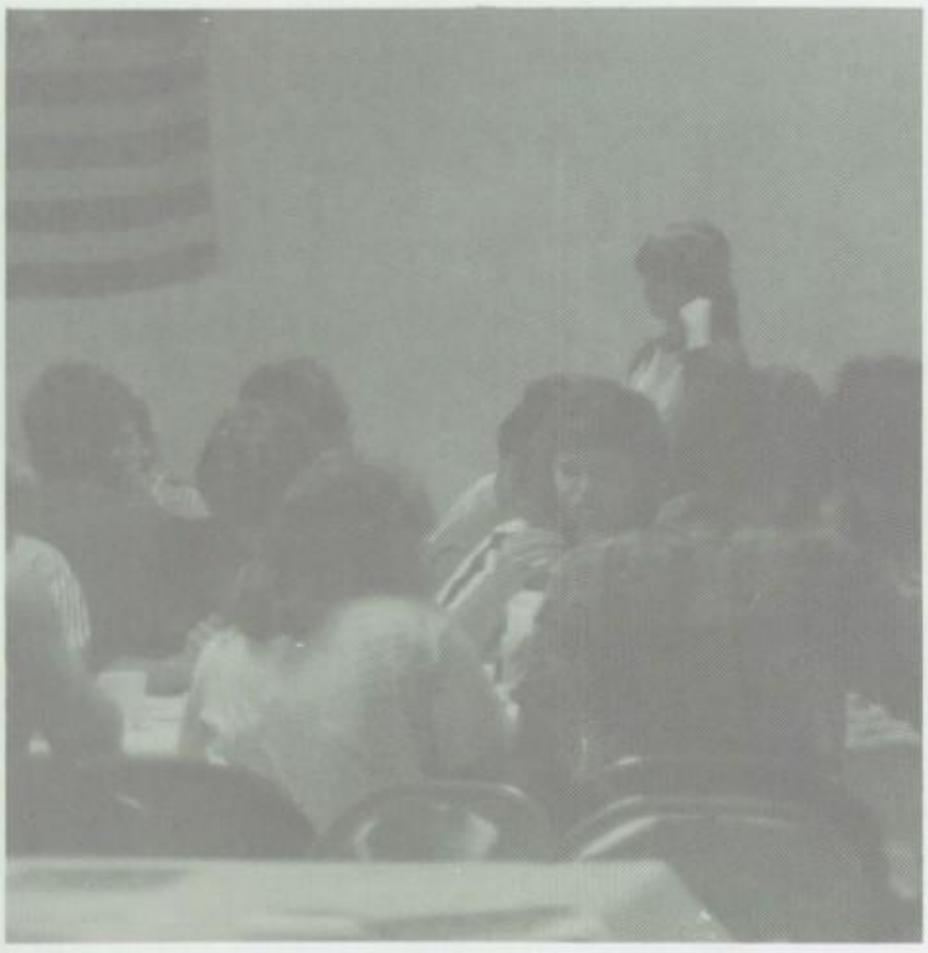
Frosty Troy was the speaker for the 1988 graduation.

Jon Hupp proudly takes his diploma!



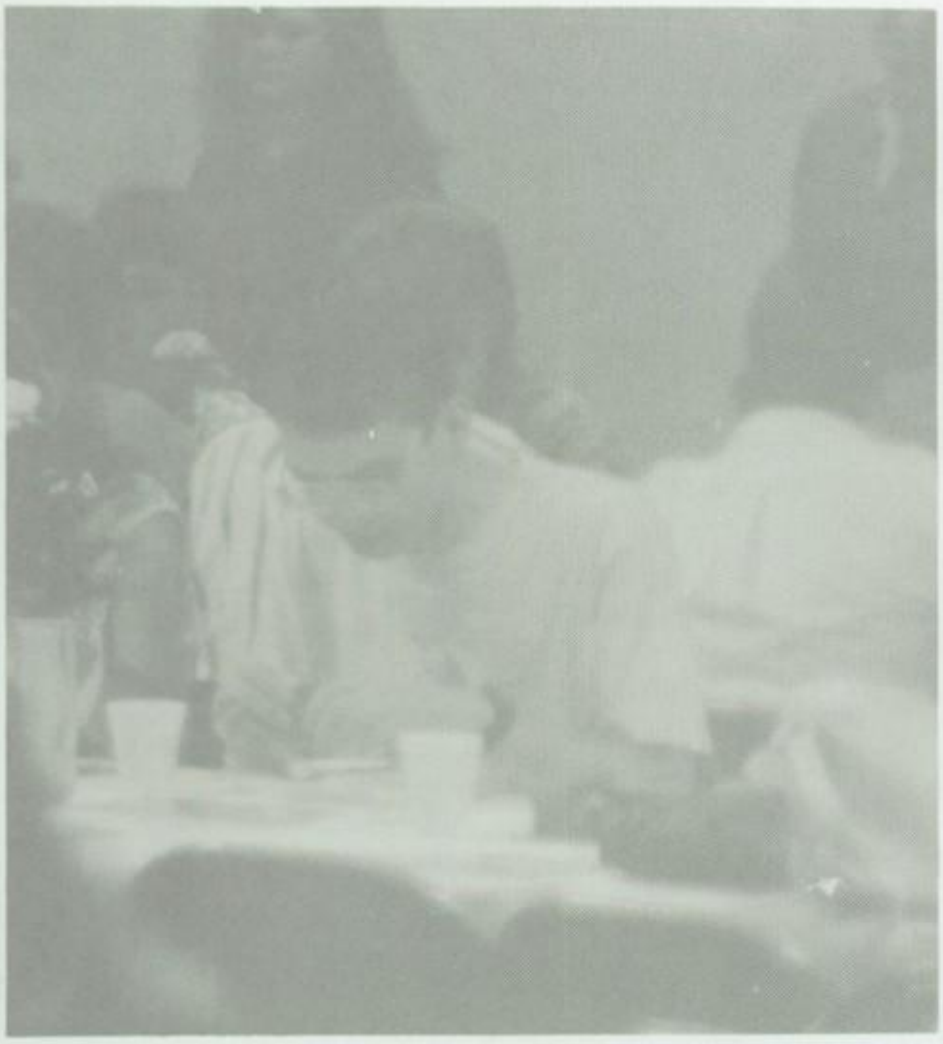
Are we finished yet? I'm bored!

SENIOR BREAKFAST

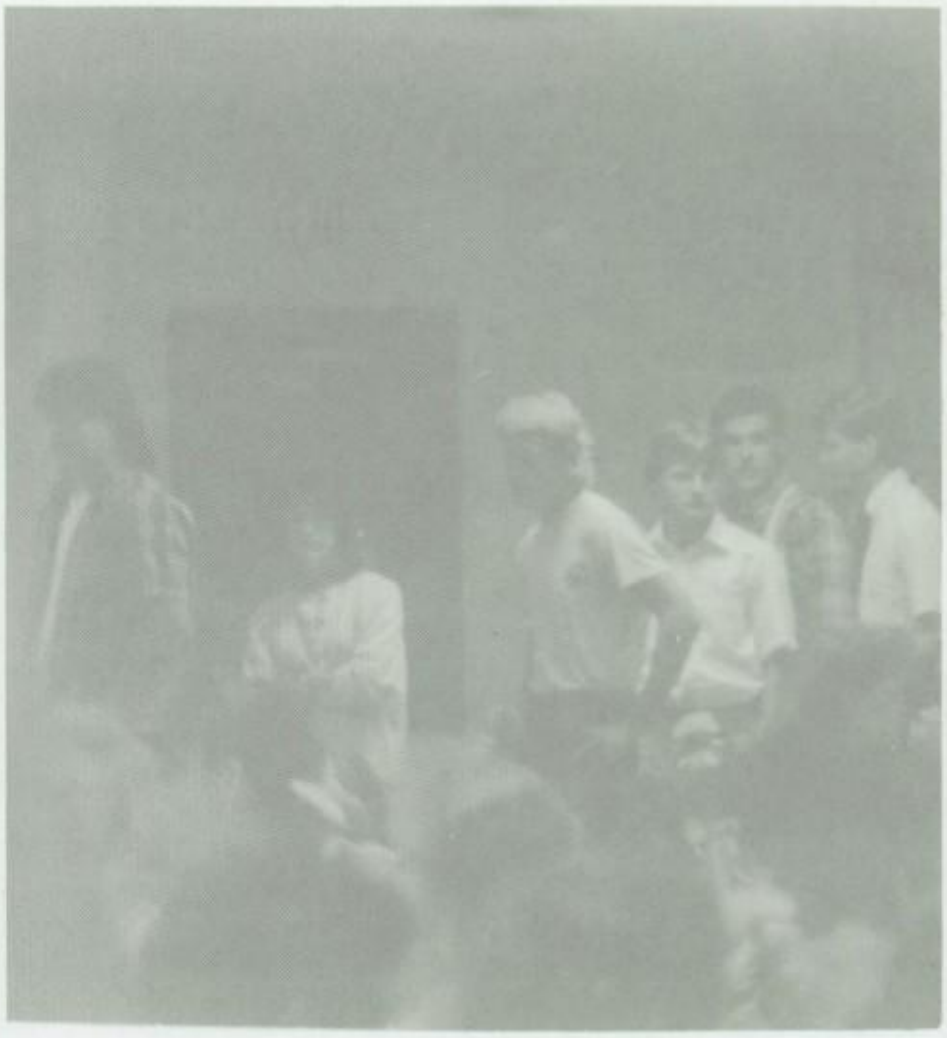


The breakfast tasted great after a long day at World's of Fun.

You must be hungry; your stomach is growling.



Is this what I'm supposed to eat for breakfast? Where are the doughnuts? Where are the Cokes?



Rick York — Come on, I'm hungry!

WHAT IS A SOPHOMORE? Ask a senior or junior that question and the response you get might be something like, "an underclassman," "someone to pick on," or even "old enough to know about it but too young to do anything."

Sophomores know about turning sixteen and the thrill of getting their driver's license, but they still have a lot they have to wait for . . . earning points for prom committee, being on prom committee, going to prom, buying graduation invitations, caps and gowns and actually graduating.

However, the sophomores have nothing to fear because their remaining high school years can be some of the best times of their lives. Besides, nothing lasts forever!

TO HAVE A DREAM
Always have a dream and believe it will come true.
Strive to make it happen in everything you do.
For dreams are what make life worth living,
Love worth taking and love worth giving.
Dreams keep life from being boring.
They lift up your spirit and keep it soaring.

TO FOLLOW YOUR DREAM

Don't let it go;
Don't forget it,
Just reach for your goal.
No matter what people might tell you,
No matter what they will say;
If it is your dream,
Don't let it stray.
Practice makes perfect,
It's all up to you;
There's nothing that anyone
Can do, except you.
Through hardship or turmoil,
Through times that are rough;
Only you can achieve it
If you can stay tough.
So no matter how far away
Your accomplishment may seem;
If you want it enough,
Just follow your dream.

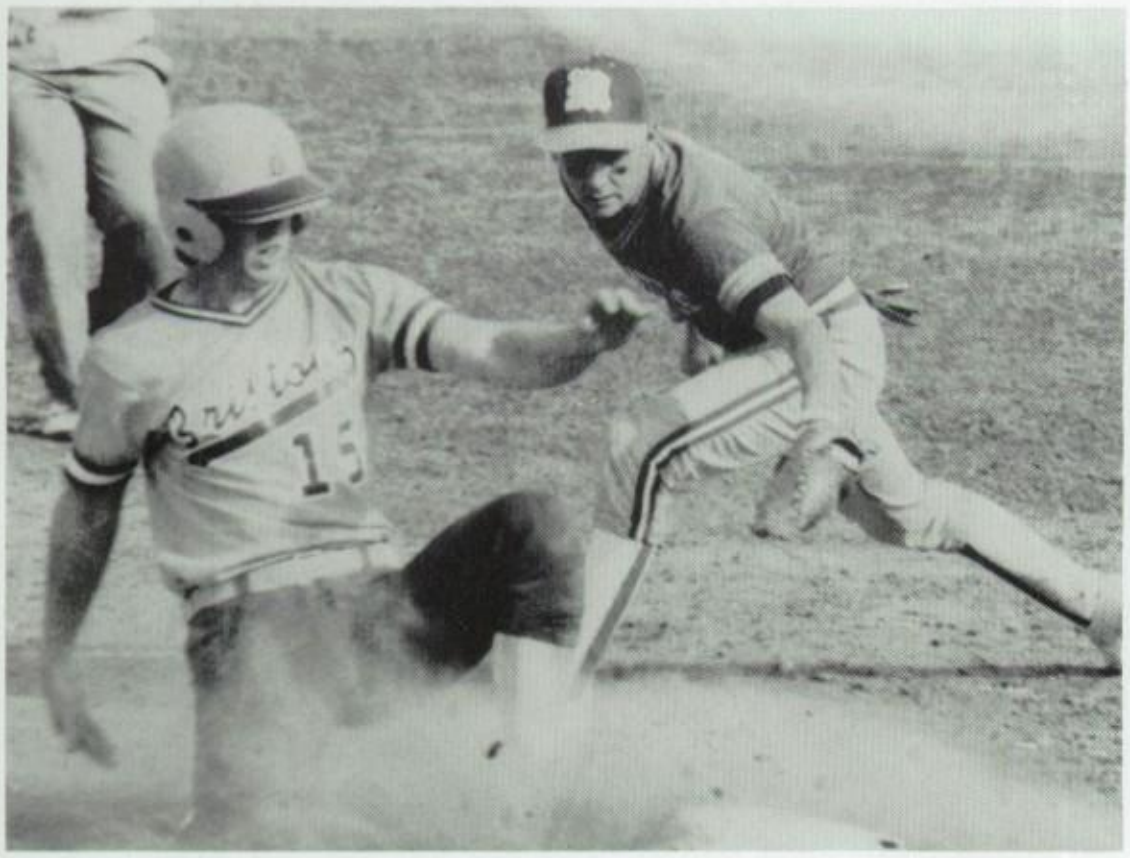
The Varsity Baseball team did extremly well this season. They ended with a 21-10 record in all. We are very proud of our guys. Although they did not go all the way to state they came really close. The guys, with their great ability and teamwork, did win the District and Regional Championships. They were state qualifiers which is a big accomplishment! Thanks for a great season guys!



I'll get him!!

Anytime now guys!!!

Cheerleaders showing their spirit during the homecoming parade.

The cheerleaders have worked hard this year beginning with their car wash last year in May. They also began practicing at the end of May to be prepared for camp June 23-26. In July, the cheeleaders had a fireworks stand from June 18- July 4 which helped raise funds for their expenses. They cheered the football team on through their season and then in November got together the Powder Puff game. (By the way, the Senior/Freshman team beat the Soph./Jr. team.) The cheerleaders continued to support us through basketball, pep assemblies and rallying us toward better school spirit. As the year came to an end the cheerleaders held a clinic and then try-outs for next years cheerleaders were held April 16.

FCA ACTIVITIES

Guest speaker Jim Riley, former player for the Miami Dolphins, delivered an anti-drug speech to all grade levels. Guest speaker Tanya Criever, expert basketball handler, from Jefferson City, South Dakota gave a demonstration and speech as part of the FCA program. Several fun and fellowship activities were enjoyed by the FCA members throughout the year.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America had an exciting year. They had parties and went to many interesting places for pleasure and also to be good citizens of Mannford. Here are some of the things FHA did over the year; in August they went to Sub-District Leadership Conference at Tulsa Union High School, in October they had a Halloween party, in November they visited the nursing home of Mannford and also went to Sub-District Convention in Tulsa. They missed their Christmas party in December due to the arrival of a certain baby boy so they had a Christmas party in January. In April they went to State Convention in Oklahoma City. While they were there they toured the State Capitol and also went shopping. FHA set out to collect cans to help Oklahoma's Ronald McDonald House. Their project was a big success! The members of FHA should be proud. The FHA officers are President — Heidi Elliott, Historian — Jennifer Naughton, and Beau — Dennis Shockley.

I WANT MY MHS PRIDE!

Top Row L to R: Eddie Taylor, Jeremy Hopkins 2nd Row: Rathan Levins, Christine Weingartner, Tonya Jones, Dana Simpson 3rd Row: Advisor Paula Scott, Mary Tennison, Dana Cundith Bottom Row: Cindy Hardin, Donna Pearce

The MHS Pride staff has worked very hard this year to bring you more stories and have a more enjoyable paper. They added more graphics, concert reviews, and video reviews. They added more student opinions and worked very hard to please everyone. The staff was a well-balanced variety of personalities which made for a very interesting year. There were conflicts at first, but when everyone worked together it made for a great paper and a great year!

D. Pearce — Oh, I love this class!

E. Taylor, M. Tennison, D. Pearce, D. Simpson, R. Levins, J. Hopkins, D. Cundith show us how they meet their deadlines!

C. Weingartner — What concentration.

Pam Brown - Finally, after all of these years!!

The National Honor Society is an honor bestowed upon a student, so students may not directly apply. Selection for membership is based on outstanding scholarship, service, leadership, and character.

In addition to individual service projects, a chapter service project is required each year. This year NHS sponsored a cash drive at the high school to buy toys and clothing at Christmas for needy children within the community. Because MHS students responded generously, eighteen children were provided for.

We really know what we're doing!

So much fun!

The yearbook staff worked very hard to make the 1987-88 yearbook a great one. It was a challenge considering they had a new advisor and an entirely new staff. A lot of time and effort went into this yearbook so the staff hopes you enjoy it.

Cindy H. works hard on all the artwork.

The 1987-88 yearbook staff would like to thank Mrs. Lewis for her assistance with the artwork and Mr. Barnett for the pictures he supplied.

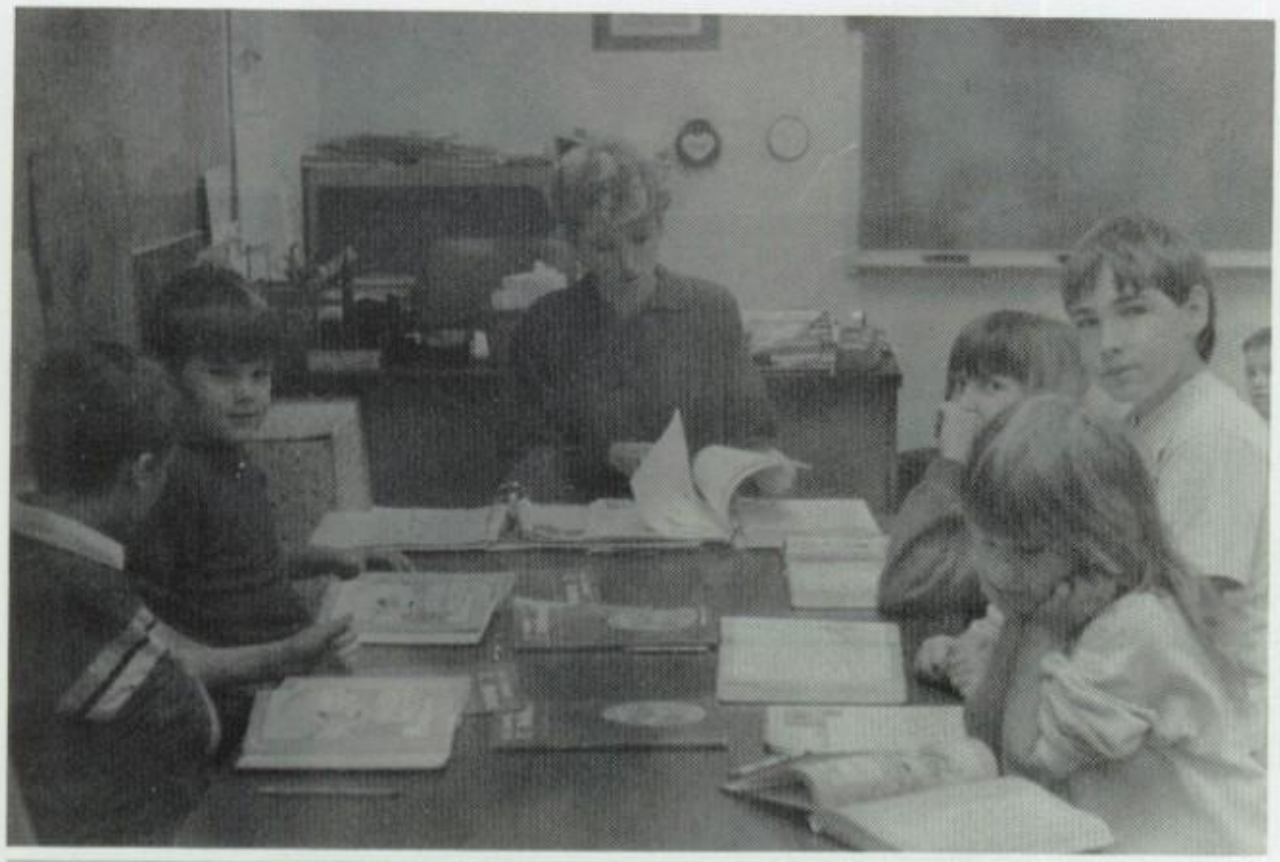
Now class . . .

Why me?!



Top- Group learning is a part of everyday elementary life. Middle- An elephant picture displays what is taught to students of all ages; "read directions". Bottom- Children in elementary work busily on assignments in class.

ELEMENTARY LEARNING

Elementary school is a time for learning and building basic skills.

Mannford's elementary consists of grades kindergarten through 5th grade. Kindergarten classes; however, only go half a day.

The elementary kids are taught to read, follow directions, do arithmetic; i.e. add, subtract, multiply and divide, write in cursive and print, and learn basic skills in gym class.

Although elementary kids do work, there is time for the students to do what comes natural to them, and that is just being kids and having fun. The students are allowed three recesses a day. One before school, one after lunch, and another short break sometime in the afternoon, depending on the grade they are in.

Elementary school gives our children a start in life that will prepare them for middle school and eventually life itself, in the real world as we know it.

Our Little Boy
Little boys are like Spring sunshine dancing on the dewy lawn.
Our little boy has sunshine in his hair and eyes of sparkling blue. Fear is a word he doesn't know. He's safe and happy in a world of his own. Everyone's his friend and no one's his foe. He's always in search of something-touching-feeling-looking-finding out. He's high enough for his nose to reach the table. He can drink alone with only a little spill. He climbs upon a bench, then tumbles and bumps on the floor. He yells for attention and when he gets it he only yells for more. Squashed fingers and bruised lips, a kiss can quickly heal. Sush — he's asleep now with his cheek soft against me. His curls damp from hard play in his sand pile. Sleep my little boy sleep. Love, Mom and Dad

Remember When

. . . Remember days of skipping school, racing cars and being cool . . . Everyone has memories that they'll think about after school. Some will make you laugh and others will make you cry. But what makes memories? Is it the time or the place? No, it's the people. A memory can happen anywhere; at the beach, a party, during class, or sitting at home. But wherever they are, in years to come they will be held dear to us always.

Some of the memories of the seniors go back to their elementary years, others were only yesterday. When asked, here's what the '88 seniors said their favorite memories were:

Gary Varnell- "My favorite school day memory at Mannford was the day when everybody protested the 35 minute lunch period by eating at the cafeteria."
Brent Burns- "The snow days."
Debbie Snell- "When I finally got to drive my 1965 Mustang to school."
Shannon McDonald- "When somebody put beer cans all over the softball field."
Monica Martin- "All the snowball fights when Shelly and I got thrown into the back of a snow filled truck by Trevin and Scott."
Trevin Martin- "Tornado!"
Joe Patrick- "The day I climbed into Mr. Rathbun's ceiling."
David Insco- "The last day of our Jr. year when Neal doused Mrs. Shope with his water gun."
Joanna King- "The day Mrs. Wright wore miss-matched shoes."
Bobby Epperly- "The day Kevin and Mr. Arnold were arguing about whether Kevin was absent or tardy and Kevin told Mr. Arnold he looked like Judge Wopner & ended up getting his 5th tardy and was suspended for 2 days."
Manuel Jimenez & Tony Warnock- "The elementary track meets."
Pam Johnston- "The last day of my sophomore year when everyone went to the lake & went swimming."
Mary Bruce- "Actually a not so favorite memory is Coach Kulla throwing a desk because I asked him where to sit! He showed me alright!!"
Christine Bussell- "Going to state contest for vo-tech."
Wayne Allen- "Attending Oklahoma livestock show and state convention during my Ag years."
Monica Aylworth- "Being around my friends."
Kim McClain- "When I was voted homecoming queen."
Lorrie Hightower- "Being around the party crue."
Marsha Brazeal- "My Jr. year in chemistry when I first met Trace Cluck."
Jon Hupp- "In grade school when I was a Crest toothpaste man with a Crest mobile and I killed cavity creeps. It was a small skit that was done for many classes."
Dennis Shockley- "My favorite day is the day when the lights went out and we got to go home early."
Jamie Huffman- "In Alg. 2 I threw my pen and it bounced off Scott Harper's desk and he didn't even see it. I laughed for the rest of the hour."
Steve Watson- "9th grade when our boys freshman basketball team beat Cleveland for their first win in three years."
Jason Moore- "The day Mrs. Rogers threw erasers at Joe P."
Shelly Martin- "When the Breakfast Club would go sell ads for yearbook my Jr. year."
Clint Naughton- "When Mrs. Lewis attacked Robby Grupp and literally threw him out of class."
Kevin Foster- "Hank, Dennis, Bobby, Gary, and I had a barbecue out in the parking lot during lunch in the rain."
Cindy Hardin- "When Donna and I had a marker fight in art, and Ms. Lewis sent Kevin Varnell out of the room. Also when the Brat worked."
Keri Furr-
"The day Missy and I were at the old gym and her dog walked in and everyone was yelling about it. We chased it everywhere and finally caught it at Phelps. We put the dog in the trunk to take it to her house & the dog was banging its head on the roof! I hope the dog's okay!"
Christine Weingartner- "In 8th grade Rhonda Smith griped out Mr. Rathbun's civics class and made us all laugh so hard! Mrs. Gregory came in and was griping us out because we had a substitute. The next day half of the class was put in a special room with Mr. Owsley to watch them. Also when Shannon, Samantha and I got sent to the office by Mrs. Rogers for laughing!"

So whether you write a song about your favorite memory or you just hold it dear to your heart, your memories are something no one can take away from you.
